

Lowell Restaurant and Diner Specials 2010 Lowell Film Festival

In the 1930's, Prohibition spurred the advent of the exotic cocktail while the Depression saw families enjoying cheap eats at local diners. In spirit of the era, local diners will offer breakfast meal deals and restaurants will feature cocktail specials during Film Festival weekend. We hope you make time to visit our restaurant & diner partners and enjoy these great one-time specials!

COCKTAIL SPECIALS | Thursday, April 8 - Saturday, April 10

La Boniche, 143 Merrimack Street
Embassy Cocktail (originated at the Embassy Club in Hollywood during the 1930's!) ... $7.50

Mambo Grill, 129 Merrimack Street
Zombie ... $4.99

Cobblestones, 91 Dutton Street
The Mint Julep ... $3.00

Centro, 24 Market Street
Sidecar ... $8:50

Ricardo's Café Trattoria, 110 Gorham Street
Greta Garbo Martini ... $8.95

Blue Taleh, 15 Kearney Square
Sidecar Martini ... $9.50

Caffe Paradiso, 45 Palmer Street
American Sidecar Martini $8.00 and Italian Greyhound Martini ... $8.00

Athenian Corner, 207 Market Street
Zorba's Dance ... $6.95

DINER SPECIALS | Saturday, April 10

Arthur's Paradise Diner, 112 Bridge Street
Boot Mill Sandwich and free coffee mug ... $3.50

Cameo Diner, 715 Lakeview Avenue
2 eggs, bacon, home fries, toast, coffee or tea ... $7.00

Club Diner, 145 Dutton Street
Order a regular omelette off the menu, get the second one HALF PRICE

Ray Robinson Sandwich Shop, 201 Central Street
French toast & coffee ... $5.00

Vic's Breakfast Diner, Aiken Avenue & W. 6th
2 eggs any style, home fries and/or beans, toast, bottomless cup of coffee,
AND Vic's famous Pork Pie ... $7.00